

— CLASSIC HITS FROM THE 70'S TO TODAY

BAD PARIS

About

Bad Paris is a high-energy, Newcastle-based band comprised of professional musicians, delivering an electrifying mix of hits from the '70s to today. Known for their dynamic stage presence and impeccable musicianship, they bring a fresh, vibrant twist to classic anthems and modern chart-toppers, making every performance an unforgettable experience. Whether rocking out to timeless classics or the latest tracks, Bad Paris is the ultimate live band for any event.

Bookings via GENR8
ENTERTAINMENT

JAZZ - LEAD VOCALS

ANTHONY - DRUMS

KAZ - BASS GUITAR

JAMIE - LEAD GUITAR

Jazz has been singing for as long as she can remember, performing in musicals and festivals. She's currently working on her original music, with her debut EP "Sparkes Road" coming soon. As lead vocalist, she brings boundless energy and talent.

Anthony "Tony" Robinson on drums and vocals! Tony started drumming at 7 and began performing at 15. He's played with renowned cover/tribute bands and spent years performing on cruise ships. Bad Paris has been his passion for over 8 years.

Kaz is a seasoned multi-instrumentalist with over 20 years of experience. She has performed extensively across Newcastle and regional NSW, enjoyed radio success, featured on Triple J, and has also supported renowned Australian rock band Eskimo Joe. With her versatile talent, Kaz is a key member of Bad Paris.

Jamie picked up the guitar at 13 and instantly discovered a talent that would shape his life. Having performed at major Australian music festivals and shared the stage with many Australian music icons, Jamie brings his incredible talent to every performance.

BAD PARIS

Real Music. No Limits.